Coronavirus/COVID-19 update: County Community Health Manager Michelle Cullen reported numbers are looking good. She said there are 350 active cases and there were only 56 new cases in last seven days and three in last three days. She said hospitalizations in the region are down a little with a total of 60 in the region, Genesis has 90 and Mercy has five. The positivity rate is 8.9%. She said vaccines have increased to 34% of the County population; 10% have had one shot and 24% have completed the series. Cullen said there are several opportunities to get the vaccination. She said there is a public clinic Thursday at Clinton County Administration Building and added that Mercy also has open slots for shots. Cullen said Jackson County will also have 1,000 doses at a clinic on Friday. Nancy Burns from EMA said a call center is available on Tuesday afternoon for people to schedule their appointments on Thursday.

DEPARTMENT HEADS, ELECTED OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES

County Auditor Eric Van Lancker reported he expects to receive a proposal this week for a county-wide broadband study today. He said The Homeless Coalition would like a Supervisor to join them for their next meeting on Thursday at 9 a.m. to discuss the possible use of Rescue Funds for projects in the area. Van Lancker also reported he has been asked to serve on an ISAC committee to research and make recommendations in regards to the use of Rescue funds sent to Iowa counties. Van Lancker added the fire suppression system is being installed in the Sheridan building this week.

County Treasurer Dustin Johnson said there is $2.57 million in delinquent property tax from the last two tax years. He said $442,000 of that is from 2018 taxes. He said a vast majority of those delinquencies are second-half payments that weren't made. Johnson reported delinquency notices go out May 3. He said he has been working with some vendors to work on paperless notices and payments.

DISCUSSION WITH POSSIBLE ACTION

Mental Health Region Update: Supervisor Irwin reported it doesn't look like the SF587 bill will get much traction in the House. He said the backfill removal would take place during the next six years if it is approved in its current form. He said the backfill loss would hit cities harder than the County. Irwin said the positive side of the legislation is the Mental Health Region would receive almost $2 million more in services which would allow the region to get services started that they have not been able to under the current budgets. Irwin said this bill could be positive for Clinton County. However, he did say the budget forecasting committee for the state does not look good in 2024. He said the legislature is expected to finish in the next couple of weeks and he'll keep an eye on the bill.
