

DEPARTMENT HEADS, ELECTED OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES

County Auditor Eric Van Lancker reminded the Board of its County budget public hearing next Tuesday at 10 a.m. Chairman Irwin said the career and technical centers in DeWitt and Clinton were discussed at his last regional workforce meeting. He said they are trying to get some of the local, large industrial employers to come up with a two-year degree or certification that will give those who go through it a jumpstart in the local workforce. He said Nestle Purina said they aren't able to hire someone right out of high school without some training. Irwin said there has been a discussion about creating a port authority along the Mississippi River along with several counties. He currently asked for the topic to be on next week's Board agenda.

Supervisor George said the Project MG development agreement for the railpark is further along than it has been in the past. She said there is also another company looking at the Lyons Business Park. She said the Tailgates and Tallboys ticket sales are several thousand tickets ahead of last week.

County Treasurer Dustin Johnson reported property taxes paid through the website this weekend was very heavy. He said the County is way ahead of the last three years in property tax collections.

DISCUSSION WITH POSSIBLE ACTION

Medical Examiner Investigator/Transporter Discussion: Irwin said there are a lot of things happening with this program and various conversations happening right now. He said it may be best to wait for an update on the program.

Slough Bill Tax Exemption: County Assessor Brian Tiesman said he has discussed this with the County Auditor and Board Chairman a couple of weeks ago. He said these exemption applications are kind of a mess because two exemptions overlap. He said the other exemption is Forest and Fruit tree. County GIS Coordinator Kyle Leist showed some exhibits to demonstrate the overlaps for the exemptions. Tiesman said the Assessor's office does just the maintenance and not approvals. He said Slough bill exemptions are decided by the Board. Tiesman said the applications come from Soil and Water. Leist said Forest and Fruit tree is a one-time application while the Slough bill is an annual tax exemption. Tiesman said the forest exemption should be reviewed every five years at least. He said the forest exemption should be applied for again during a transfer of ownership. Tiesman said this could be a cleanup year for the County to review the overlapping exemptions. Leist said they will be publishing the exemptions online soon. Tiesman said there are 33 counties that use the Slough bill exemptions with Clinton County having the second most land in the program. Tiesman said there are 43 parcels that don't line up for tax exempt acres. He needs permission from the Board to clean up the 43 parcels and to review keeping the Slough bill as a program. Tiesman said on one example Leist showed the taxes for the property should be $1,100 but the taxes are now $300 in taxes due to the incorrect acres that are listed as exempt. Srp said he would like to do some more homework on the matter before deciding. He said there is clearly a problem that needs to be addressed. Tiesman said there is time to review the situation before the next tax year. The discussion will return to next week's agenda.

FY25 Budget Discussion: The Board reviewed comments from last week's tax levy public hearing which was well received. Van Lancker mentioned there may need to be some discussion next year on the schedule of the mailer and the public hearings, but recognized the schedule is tight.
